I thank you for the information furnished and advise that the applicant is hereby authorised to transact in its capacity as a Treasury outsourcing company. Should the applicant in future wish to transact with any other Authorised Dealer in terms of this authority, a copy of our reply should be made available to such Authorised Dealer who should familiarise themselves with the terms and conditions applicable to this authority.

For record purposes we require such Authorised Dealer to advise us should they deal with the applicant in terms of this authority.

Any exchange control authorities previously granted to the applicant relating to the manner in which it conducts business are superceded by this authority, where applicable.

The above approval is granted subject to the following conditions and while the applicant company must use its best endeavours to ensure compliance with our directives, it should be noted that the ultimate responsibility for complying with the conditions stipulated rests on the Authorised Dealer facilitating such transactions:
